

booking form

Please reserve me ____ place(s) on this workshop.

Name(s) and affiliation(s) of participants as you would like to appear on your badge:

Contact Address of key booking contact:

Contact Tel of key booking contact:

Email addresses of all named participants:

I DO / NOT require lunch (please delete as appropriate)

Please indicate any special dietary requirements and the number of persons to which each dietary requirement applies:

Cost: £50 per person (some concessions available on request)

- For direct payments please invoice the college at the address above (with purchase order number if applicable) OR
- I enclose a cheque for £..... payable to 'West Midlands Churches' Further Education Council'
- I require a receipt (receipts will be sent by email to key booking contact listed above).

Please return either by email to: director@saltleytrust.org.uk or by post to: WMCFEC, c/o St Peter's Saltley Trust, 3 Nursery Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham B15 3JX (0121) 427 6800, by 23 February 2015.

©iStock.com/Kerstin Waurick

Handling Difficult Faith-Based Discussions and Disputes in your College

Workshop for staff in further education

Tuesday 10 March 2015

09:30 – 16:00

North Warwickshire and Hinckley College (Hinckley Road, Nuneaton, campus)

Increasing Faith Literacy in your College: workshop 3

Organised by:

programme

09.30	Arrival, tea and coffee
09.45	Welcome and introduction to the day – why is this important?
10.00	Session 1: How faith-based discussions and disputes are(n't) like any other source of disagreement ( Sandra Cobbin, Clarity Development )
11.00	Tea/coffee
11.20	Session 2: Guidelines for exploring differences in faith and culture (interactive session!) ( Tim Fawcett and team, The Feast )
12.50	Lunch and opportunity to browse resources
13.45	Session 3: Murky waters: handling difficult discussions, conversations and disputes (interactive session, coffee available!) ( Anna Gregory and Jackie Zammit, Peacemakers )
15.45	Capturing learning and embedding it in your College
16.00	Close

---

organisers

The West Midlands Churches' FE Council supports the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of students and the training and resourcing of college staff in matters of faith and spirituality. It also supports Christian churches in the region to value FE and lifelong learning as part of their wider contribution to education. The Council is both rooted in the Christian tradition and works positively with people of any faith and none. It is chaired by Rt Revd Clive Gregory, Bishop of Wolverhampton. For more info, contact the Council's secretary, Ian Jones (info@wmcfec.org.uk or 0121 427 6800)

contributors

Sandra Cobbin is Director at Clarity Development, which works with churches, charities and businesses to resource leaders through coaching and training. As a mediator, Sandra offers conflict transformation to organisations and groups in conflict. Based in Coventry, she is also an associate trainer with Bridge Builders.

Tim Fawcett is CEO at The Feast, an award-winning charity promoting community cohesion between Christian and Muslim young people. Founded in Birmingham, in recent years The Feast has initiated new projects in Bradford/Keighley and Tower Hamlets.

Anna Gregory is on the team of Peacemakers, the West Midlands Quaker Peace Education Project, and leads on whole-school approaches to peacemaking. She previously taught performing arts at Chesterfield College and has worked in a variety of other educational settings.

Jackie Zammit is a peace education trainer with Peacemakers, the West Midlands Quaker Peace Education Project. She leads Peacemaker courses and Peer Mediation training in educational settings. She also has extensive experience in international development education.